The Worn Wear crew hits the road again, bringing the fix to the Eastern Seaboard in January and February 2019. Check out wornwear.com for a full schedule of stops. While you're there, you can also shop for or trade in quality used Patagonia gear, learn how to repair your items yourself, and read stories of romance and commitment between people and their clothes.

Above: The man himself, Dave Wilkin loved physical work and tended the grounds at Patagonia's Ventura headquarters. He grumbled at people who trod on his flowers, but never failed to offer nonoffenders a smile or a story. TIM DAVIS
